

ANSWER SHEET

SRI SAI HIGH SCHOOL

GOLIVARI STREET, PERALA - 523 157

MARKS

Name SK. NasreenRoll No. 6Class 10thSubject SocialDate 28/4/25Examination SLP testInvigilator Signature [Signature]

I.

1. A) Everything available in our environment which can be used to satisfy our needs. Provided it is ecological accessible, economically feasible, culturally acceptable can be termed as resource.
2. A) Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh and Madhya Pradesh
3. A) Brundtland Commission Report.
4. A) 3.28 million sq. km
5. A) At present there are about 180 million km<sup>2</sup> hectares of degraded land in India.

II.

6. A) i) These are resources which are regulated by the international resources.
ii) Examples are the oceanic resources are beyond 200 km of the exclusive economic zone of open ocean and no individual resources of concurrence of international institution.

III.

The following are the features of arid soil

- 7A) 1) The colour of the arid soil ranges from red to brown.
- 2) Arid soil is generally sandy and texture and saline in nature.
- 3) The soil lack of human and moisture becomes dry climate, high temperature and fast evaporation.
- 4) The lower parts of the soil are occupied by the kankar because of calcium constitution of water in lower layers.

- 8A) 1) It is the human is the centre of the resource development.
- 2) Actually all resources becomes they are resource development.
- 3) The resource can be used to dams, houses, bridges, power houses. to run uses of teachers, doctors, engrines, are required.